A Tapestry of Flavors:

Unveiling This Treasure in New Kent County

Virginia's Wine Market is booming! The State is drawing local and international attention as the 3rd largest Wine producer in the Country

New Kent Winery is the largest Grape producing vineyard in the 10 American Viticultural area designated in Virginia and has 38 acres of meticulously cultivated vines producing over 100 tons of grapes a year. In New Kent County, the fastest-growing county in Virginia lies a hidden gem, family-owned winery and brewery that weaves together the artistry of fine wine and beer production. Nestled between the historic cities of Richmond and Williamsburg, and near Washington D.C. and Virginia Beach, this enchanting destination has become a haven for wine lovers and fun seekers with over 100,000 visitors in the past year and hundreds of weddings over the years.

The heart of the Winery and brewery is a magnificent 25,000 square-foot tasting and production facility. Its rustic charm, adorned with antique wood beams and floors with stone accents taken from the historic Shockoe Bottom in Richmond, Virginia whispers tales of craftsmanship and tradition.

The symphony of grape varietals dances in the air-Chardonnay, Merlot, and 9 other exquisite blends capturing the region's fertile soil, mineral content, and gentle climate.

The tasting room offers Wine and beer flights that are carefully curated, showcasing the family's 11 varietals of Wine and an array of signature craft beers. All wines are barrel aged for more than 2 years before they are allowed to be served making them highly sought after and unique in their exquisite taste.

A Craft Brewery was added in 2020 and garnered high praise for the beer's full flavor and superior ingredients bringing a larger more broadly diversified clientele to the Winery.

The winery and brewery have garnered recognition for their contributions to the community. The New Kent Chamber of Commerce honored them with the esteemed "Excellence in Business Award", celebrating their role in making New Kent County a destination cherished by wine and beer enthusiasts.

In this tale of passion and perseverance, a winery and brewery in New Kent County emerge as a haven for those who seek to embrace the moment and indulge in the artistry that lies within a glass!

Sale includes all furniture and equipment located at the Winery and also all buildings located on the property and vineyard acres. A list is available upon request.
